PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Joseph (Joe) Jarkesy joined Berger Commercial Realty Corp. as a Broker Associate. Mr. Jarkesy comes to BCRC with a broad range of experience in both commercial sales and leasing. Prior to becoming a licensed real estate broker, Mr. Jarkesy worked in Texas with a group of investors determining the feasibility of different investments worth over 500 million dollars. In 2004 Joe returned to Fort Lauderdale to use his experience and knowledge of the area to help clients find the most profitable locations for their businesses. Since then he has worked with over a hundred local businesses helping them to find suitable locations in the Fort Lauderdale area. While working with these businesses he has built relationships with many owners and has been helping them with the leasing and sales of their real estate assets.

His primary focus within the company is in leasing and sales of office, retail and industrial property. A Fort Lauderdale native, Joe has a unique and intimate knowledge of the area which has given him a thorough understanding of the local commercial real estate market.
